O'CONNELL WILL SERVE SIX MONTHS IN LOCAL JAIL

Judge Cochran Sentences William O'Connell to Serve Six Months in the Maysville Jail For Violating Espionage Act.

Federal Judge A. M. J. Cochran at Covington Friday passed sentence on a large number of persons who had been convicted at the recent session of the Federal Court for the Eastern District of Kentucky.

Among a large number of men sentenced was William O'Connell, Mason county man who was arrested several weeks ago on a charge of having violated the Federal Espionage Act when he is said to have advised a young man not to enlist in the United States army at the local army recruiting station.

O'Connell was under the influence of liquor at the time and said he remembered making no such remark and knew that had he been sober at the time he would not have made such a remark.

The prosecution offered the young soldier as witness against O'Connell who had no defense to offer except that he knew nothing of the incident and thought he was talking to an old friend in just a joking manner about enlisting.

Judge Cochran, in his decision, sentenced O'Connell to serve his six months time in the Mason county jail in this city. This is the first Federal prisoner assigned to the Maysville jail for several years.

DESERTER TURNED OVER TO OFFICIALS

Special Officer John Mitchell, of the government dam, went to Fort Thomas this morning having in his custody Alonzo Gerner, the negro arrested at the dam Friday and who later when taken before the Mason County Exemption Board, confessed to being a deserter. Gerner will be turned over to the army officers and will be given a court martial trial.

YANKS CONTINUE ADVANCE; FRENCH LAUNCH NEW ATTACK

Americans Press on Toward Metz While French Start New Drive on Ailette Between Aisne and Vesle.

London, September 14 — French troops began a new attack at dawn this morning on both sides of the Ailette river and between the Aisne and the Vesle river.

The attack of the French forces in the direction of the Forest of Vouzy, at the southern end of the St. Gobain massif, advanced for a distance of between one and two miles on an 11-mile front.

The attack was launched at 5 o'clock. One division at an early hour had taken 1,000 prisoners, making a total of 1,800 Germans captured on that front alone.

South of the Ailette river the French captured Mont Desinges and the villages of Allemont and Sancy.

The French also reached the edge of the town of Vailly on the Aisne. The advance of the French threatens to turn the flank of the German defensive positions on the Chemin des Dames, ad it also endangers Laon.

With the Americans on the Metz Front, September 14 — Having defeated and routed the Germans at all points in what once was the famous St. Mihiel salient, America's victorious First Army faced the enemy today along a new line in some places 12 miles north of their old one.

Americans driving across the heights of the Meuse from the west cut through the pocket seven miles to Vigneulles, where they met the other American forces, smashing in from the south, thus completing the closing of the sack.

Our front now runs through Noroy, Jaulny, Xammes, St. Benoit, Hattonville, Hammonville and Herbeuville. All the territory within the line is under control of the Americans.

The number of prisoners and guns taken as Pershing's troops swept on increased with great rapidity. All our objectives were attained according to schedule.

"We're going strong," was the report from a certain already famous division, regarding the progress of its attack shortly after the offensive opened.

From the start of the drive it was evident the prisoners would number thousands.

When 5,000 to 7,000 already had been counted, reports came into headquarters from all directions telling of groups of 200, 300 and 500 more on their way to the rear.

Eighteen hundred prisoners, including eight officers, were taken when Thiaucourt fell. Eighteen officers were included in another bag.

Numerous machine guns have been seized. One infantry detachment charged and captured an entire battery of field guns which were firing upon them.

ANOTHER CAR OF CEMENT ARRIVES

The second car load of cement for the concreting of the C. & O. depot grounds and street has arrived and contractor James Ireland will begin concreting in earnest in a few days. Up to the present time very little concreting has been done but enough cement is now on hand to warrant the contractor to proceed full speed ahead and he expects the rest of the cement within a short time.

BIG LAND SALE WILL ATTRACT MANY

The sale of the George Mitchell farms in the Mt. Gilead neighborhood being partly in Mason and partly in Fleming county, will be held this afternoon and as this is one of the best farms in this section of the country, it is expected that there will be quite a number of people attend the sale.

BOARD ASSISTANT IS GETTING TRAINING

Fred Arn, Jr., who was appointed from the limited service class to assist the local Exemption Board as an assistant clerk, is now taking a special training at Camp Zachary Taylor and will return in time to assist the local board in its work on the new registrants.

KENTUCKIANS INJURED WHEN HOUSE COLLAPSES

James Bradley, prominent Georgetown, Ky., attorney, Edward Parker, horse dealer and William McKeever, chauffeur, also from Georgetown, were injured in Cincinnati this morning when a house at 708 Race street collapsed about 9 o'clock.

DR. WILSON GOES TO AURORA, ILL.

Maysville Man Who Has Been Pastor In the North Is Highly Praised In Church Paper.

The following handsome reference to one of our "Maysville boys" occurs in a letter from the Michigan contributor to the "Herald and Presbytery":

The First Church of Lansing, Mich., is going to lose its beloved pastor, Rev. Horace Cady Wilson, D. D., who, after twelve years of splendid service, has accepted a call to Aurora, Ill. Dr. Wilson has been remarkably successful in our capital city. He found less than three hundred members in the First Church twelve years ago. Now it has much more than doubled that membership. Last year the congregation gave over $1,000 to home missions, and over $500 to foreign missions. A new enterprise has also been developed into a vigorous church that will soon reach self-support. Dr. Wilson has not confined himself to his local church work. He has been active in all synodical affairs, chairman of the Every-member Plan Committee, and in many other lines of work. He is also state secretary of the Michigan Anti-Saloon League. His going will be a great loss to Michigan, but he will be of great gain to Illinois when he commences his work on September 22d. It is somewhat discouraging for those of us who have for years been trying to bring the Synod of Michigan to the place where we believe it belongs, to part company with such a genial and vigorous fellow worker as Dr. Wilson; but we shall expect big things of him.

MANY OFFERING THEIR SERVICES

It is understood that already quite a number local men and women have offered their services to the Council of National Defense in filling out the hundreds of blank questionnaires which must be filled for the men who registered on last Thursday. A meeting of these volunteers is being planned for Monday.

ARTIFICIAL RISE IS ON ITS WAY

Another artificial rise in the Ohio river is on its way and will soon reach Maysville carrying with it a large amount of coal released from the Kanawha coal fields. Several local merchants are hoping that some of their river coal which has been ordered for many months, will come down in this rise.

MASON WOMAN TALKS TO BRACKEN WOMEN

At a meeting of the Bracken County Council of National Defense and the Woman's Committee of National Defense, held in Augusta, Friday, Mrs. Jennie Zeigler, of this county, made one of the chief addresses.

AUXILIARY MEETS

The Auxiliary to the Health League will meet Monday afternoon from 1 to 5 with Miss Casey to sew and make preparation for the Bazaar at the Tobacco and Corn Fair.

A meeting of the stock breeders who are interested in the big short horn sale to be held here this fall, was held here today and plans for the big sale are well under way. It is thought that this sale will attract many stock buyers to Maysville.

"Skitch" Howe, who since his going to Camp Zachary Taylor, has become Sergeant Howe, is spending a furlough with his relatives here and shaking hands with his many friends.

ALLEGED BRASS THIEF NEXT CRIMINAL CASE TO BE TRIED HERE

Jake Thorpe, Charged With Stealing Brass From the C. & O. Railway Company, Will Be Tried Next Week and Will Wind Up Criminal Docket.

There is but one more important criminal case awaiting trial this term or Circuit Court and that is the case against Jake Thorpe, who claims Portsmouth, Ohio, as his home and who is indicted on a charge of grand larceny for having stolen brass from the C. & O. railroad company.

Thorpe was arrested with his pal, William McGraw, at the corner of Front and Market streets on May 18, by Chief Ort and Officer P. Ryan as they came from a junk shop where they had sold a quantity of brass. They denied having stolen brass from the C. & O. railroad company but the officers started an investigation.

The police learned that these two men had hired a horse and wagon from a local livery stable on the pretense that they had some old rubber to haul and that they had gone to an East end landing where their skiff had been anchored and had secured there approximately 226 pounds of brass which had been sold to a local junk dealer. Later railroad men identified the brass as having been stolen from the railroad company.

Both men were held to the Grand Jury but on Sunday, May 28, McGraw escaped from the county jail when the turnkey opened the barred door to allow a friend to speak with McGraw. He has not since been located by the police and Joe Blazing, the man, who is said to have let him out the door, also made his get away and has not since been seen.

Thorpe will go on trial this week and although he denies he has stolen any brass from the railroad company, the officials think they have a good case against him that will send him to the state penitentiary on a grand larceny charge.

DOMESTIC SERVICE FOR PHYSICALLY DISQUALIFIED

Frankfort, Ky., September 14 — About 15 per cent of the men sent to Louisville by local boards to be inducted into limited service for duty as clerks to the boards were retained by the army authorities for domestic service, Maj. Henry Rhodes said, on his return from Louisville, where he took command of his new force.

Domestic service men grade physically between general and limited service, and do not come within the purview of local boards.

The fact that so many men classified by local boards for limited service were taken over by the army caused considerable comment, as it was thought they were found physically fit for overseas duty and held.

THEY WILL AND THEY WON'T

We meet a few strong-minded persons now and then who, in this age of shattered philosophies, theories and customs, still assert that "they will or they won't do this or that." No power on earth or in heaven can shake their belief that the affairs of the world must shape themselves to meet their views. They think, poor things, that life is going to slip back into its ancient grooves when the war is over; that business is going to be run on its former lines; that politics, society and religion are to resume their pristine aspects. If they do not do so of their own accord these purblind bigots mean to try to make them!

We are sorry for such people and we fear them. Any attempt to jam the brakes down too suddenly upon the swift, the mighty and the universal movement going on in the world today must result in disaster.

To disturb this movement is unworthy, and will prove, perhaps, a fatal skepticism. It is too big, too sweeping, too widespread, to be an error. One might as well distrust the movement of the Mississippi River, the Gulf Stream, the ocean tides or the planets! It is issuing from the very will of God, or, if you do not construe the universe in the terms of religion, it is springing out of the very heart of Nature. It is agitating every nation, it is bearing the race along upon its crest. It has a name—democracy. It has a mission—the emancipation of the human mind from its swaddling bands.

What, then, are the characteristics of this movement? The overthrow of autocratic governments, the opening of all spheres of effort and influence to woman, the elimination of drunkenness, the enfranchisement of labor, the reorganization of business and government upon a scientific basis, the exclusion of dogma from religion.

Does any man think he can sweep this oceanic wave back with his little broom? He would better get out of the way! It will minister to his future happiness to realize that such universal upheavals have some sort of Divine origin and mission, and that he must shape his individual affairs to their dictation. The man who refuses to reconcile himself, for example, to the permanent nationalization of such public utilities as the railroads, telegraph lines, coal mines and what not is more than likely to be broken by the revolving wheel of events. The man who determines to oppose and to fight the encroachments of wage earners upon the management of his business is doomed to defeat and heartache.

We stand upon the threshold of a new era. The titanic force of evolution is lifting us to a higher stage of being. That mysterious energy which has borne the race along over its rugged pathway, sometimes by means of the will of man and sometimes in spite of its opposition, still pushes us toward the unknown goal.

There have been some eddies and backsets in this cosmic stream of events which we could successfully oppose, but this is the current itself.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

AT THE GREAT DIVIDE

Edwin Markham, the poet, writes a tribute to a soldier who has fallen in battle. It is all beautiful, but it contains two little sentences that are worth thinking about. One is:

We all felt the force of his intellect, the solidity of his judgment; but we were moved even more by the blow of his spirit, by the fidelity of his friendship, by the sincerity of his devotion to the interests of his comrades.

That "glow of the spirit" was the transcendent quality. His intellect and judgment were praised, but the "glow of his spirit" was even greater than these. The personality is really the man and the spirit creates that. The other paragraph is:

He will not be forgotten by his comrades left behind; and we are certain that he has received a noble welcome from the high-hearted ones who gathered to meet him at the Great Divide! That is the thought that should fill the heart of every one has a loved one that has fallen in the conflict. There will be many at the Great Divide to meet him. What a welcome there will be. Cheer up mother, sister, father—your soldier boy will not go into a strange country.

STUDY COURSE FOR STUDENTS IS ANNOUNCED

Course of Study in the Students' Army Training Corps Is Announced by the War Department.

The War Department authorizes the following:

The course of study for student-soldiers of the Students' Army Training Corps now being organized in the colleges of the county as an active branch of the Army, is announced as follows by the Committee on Education and special Training of the War Department:

In the curriculum of the Students' Army Training Corps, the average number of hours each week will be as follows: Subjects including practical and theoretical military instruction and physical training, 11 hours a week; allied subjects including lectures, recitations, laboratory instruction and the preparation needed for such work, 42 hours a week.

These hours are set forth with reference to the normal course period. In the case of students who have had at least one year at an approved institution, during which they have specialized in studies which form part of the preparation program for Chemical Warfare, Medical Corps, Engineer Corps, the Ordnance Corps or other technical branches of the service, the Committee on Education may authorize a reduction in the hours of military training to not less than six hours a week. This is only in the event that additional number of hours be given to the study of technical subjects.

Ordinarily the allied subjects selected for the Students' Army Training Corps will be English, French, German, mathematics, physics, psychology, chemistry, biology, geology, geography, topography and map-making, meteorology, astronomy, hygiene, sanitation, descriptive geometry, law, military law and government. Permission may be given for the recognition of one other subject provided that it requires not more than three hours a week in lectures and recitations.

The presidents of the colleges which have been authorized as units of the S. A. T. C. were advised today that the Collegiate Section is confined to students graduated from standard, four-year secondary schools or students having the equivalent of such educational qualifications.

KAMERADS

Dispatches from New York the other day carried a story of a submarine having been rammed and probably sunk by a merchant vessel. As the U-boat came to the surface the crew came piling out of the shell to the gundeck.

"Kamerad," they called as the merchant vessel passed on.

"To the bottom of the sea with you, you're no Kamerad of mine," the captain shouted and signaled for full speed ahead. Presumably they perished.

"There's something peculiarly appealing in this story. It's so different.

We've been hearing this "Kamerad" stuff for many moons. The Germans have been working it over time.

Every time a machine gun nest is raided and the operators are finally up against the prospect of being bayoneted after having done their mortal best to kill their attackers, they throw up their hands and yell "Kamerad!"

And nine times out of ten they get away with it.

It's the same game Germany has been playing with America ever since the opening gun was fired into Belgium. Every time we rooted up a bomb placed they professed innocence and friendship. Every time a munitions plant went up in smoke they expressed sympathy. In the Mexican plotting they entered denials. Always they have called "Kamerad," and up to the last minute it went. The bottom of the sea is white with the bones of the victims of this kamerad stuff.

And now they're calling "Kamerad" in another fashion. Now they want no territorial gains. Their last peace to far, in the finality, simmered down to a settlement that would leave them all they had before the war, and considerable more.

This Kamerad business must go. Uncle Sam must handle Germany without gloves.

The Huns are on the run this minute. Their morale is shaken. Their army fast weakening. Their man power virtually exhausted. They'll yell again shortly.

But we must keep boring in. Chucking them in the solar plexus. Put them out.

The boys over there will do it if we back them up; keep them in trim.

We can do this only in one way. By buying Liberty Bonds.

It is said that a boat with five fishermen went out fishing from Orr's Island, Me., for herring recently and received $500 for their day's work, sharing $100 each.

DAY OF HARD-SURFACE ROADS HAS DAWNED

"I have never been an advocate of hard-surface roads in the country as a beginning" says Governor Arthur Capper of Kansas. "I have thought it wiser to improve properly and maintain consistently the earth roads we have than to attempt the building of a hard-surface-highway which farmers in many cases can not pay for, and which if insisted upon by the promoters creates antagonism to every good-roads enterprise."

"Get a farmer accustomed to driving over a well-maintained earth road and see to it that this earth road connects with the gravel or asphalt road near the town or city and you have at once begun the work of creating a good roads enthusiast. Nothing could induce this farmer to drive in any other direction, because, because he has consideration for his horses or if he uses motor power he very naturally wants the smoothest roads for hauling. One of these days we shall have hard-surface roads in every direction and in every country, just as we now get concrete or concrete and steel bridges in every county where formerly we had the unsightly wooden bridges. These things are matters of progress."

"What we need to do is to apply to farming some of the things we know, and this is true about roads."

SOMEBODY TELL ROOSEVELT

Mr. W. J. Bellomy of Clarksburg, this county, will, without doubt, hold the record as the father of the greatest number of boys within the draft age, to-wit 1. The oldest 38 and the youngest 18. Their names and ages follow: J. T. Bellomy, age 38; Tom, age 37; George, age 36; Wallace, age 35; Arthur, 33; Bruce, 32; Grant, 26; Willie, 23; Charlie, 22; Berry, 20; Hazel, 18. Sylvester, who died several years ago, would have been 24. This is a record that will entitle Mr. Bellomy to a front seat in a convention of those opposed to race suicide. But we haven't told it all. Mr. Bellomy is the father of 20 children, 16 by a first marriage and four by a second. We think we are playing safe when we award Mr. Bellomy the honor of furnishing the greatest number of registrants of any person in the United States.—Vanceburg Sun.

ROUNDUP OF MEN WHO FAILED TO REGISTER WILL START AT ONCE

Washington, September 13—A nation wide effort to roundup men who failed to register for the draft yesterday will be started immediately by a specially organized corps of department of justice agents. The corps, it was learned today, has been in process of organization for some time and will work quietly, without making general raids, like those in New York, which caused adverse criticism.

Methods have been developed for gathering information from hundreds of sources on men within the new draft ages who failed to respond and this will be used to prevent evasion.

Many volunteer members of the American protective league, citizens' organization are understood to have enlisted in the new campaign against draft dodgers, and the system is said to be so thorough that it virtually will be impossible for slackers to evade arrest.

But we must keep boring in. Chucking them in the solar plexus. Put them out.

The boys over there will do it if we back them up; keep them in trim.

We can do this only in one way. By buying Liberty Bonds.

"Whole milk is the perfect ration—the natural food. It is not merely a drink—it is a food. You eat milk. It nourishes the body, rebuilds and repairs the worn tissues. Most people eat too much. They overload their stomachs. Dairy products are easily assimilated. They give you a higher rate of good value, without taxing the stomach. The family whose meals are largely composed of dairy products are seldom troubled with digestive disorders."

COMMUNITY CHORUS PRACTISE TOMORROW

Maysville's Only Musical Organization Continues to Grow in Popularity and Size—Practise Tomorrow Afternoon.

The Mason County Community Chorus, which is made up of many voices from all parts of the county, will practise at the Neptune Hall tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock and all members who can possibly be present are urged to attend as these practises are very necessary if the organization shall grow to the size and importance the managers hope for it.

This is now the only musical organization Mason county has and it is expected that the chorus will be called upon many times in the future to furnish the music for various occasions. The chorus will be used much, it is thought, during the fourth Liberty Loan campaign which opens the latter part of this month and it is necessary that as many members attend the practise as possible.

Maysville and Mason county has had several bands but only one band lasted any time. It seems almost impossible to organize a band in Maysville again but this chorus can be easily organized and can be held together and everyone is now looking to it as the one musical organization of the city and county.

WHO KNOWS LEWIS T. ROBINSON?

A communication has been received from W. E. Moses, prominent attorney of Washington City, asking the whereabouts of Lewis T. Robinson, Union army veteran or his widow. This old soldier is recorded as living in Maysville but letters mailed to him here have been returned marked "not found." This Washington attorney has a matter in hand that may be of financial interest to Mr. Robinson or his widow and any one knowing their whereabouts will confer a favor on them by phoning this office.

GREAT WAR FUND DRIVE IS SET IN MOTION AT MEET

Kentucky Will Raise $1,770,000 in Combined Drive of Great Organizations During Week of November 11th

Louisville, Ky., September 14—Hundreds of Kentucky men and women at the Allied War Fund Campaign luncheon at the Seelbach Hotel yesterday pledged themselves to concentrate every energy toward one united campaign for funds for keeping up the morale and caring for the needs of America's soldiers, here and "over there."

For that cause, the seven national organizations have decided upon an allied drive for funds for maintaining the morale of the soldiers, supplying their needs and furnishing comforts to them. Representatives from Kentucky of the Y. M. C. A., and Y. W. C. A., the American Liberty Association, the Young Men's Hebrew Association, the Knights of Columbus, the Salvation Army and the War Camp Community Service met with national workers at a great conference held in the form of a luncheon in the ball room of the Seelbach Hotel at 12:15 o'clock.

Nearly a thousand of the guests were served in the ballroom. Others who could not be seated in the crowded room were given a buffet luncheon, and the remaining were compelled to stand in the hall way without being served at all, so large and unexpected was the crowd which came to the conference.

Led by Sherwood Eddy, who told incidents revealed to him of the life tragedy of France during his recent tour "over there" men and women from all parts of the State answered that they would "carry on" to make things easier for the defenders of France.

The patriotic pocketbook of Kentucky will be put on an acid test of loyalty, the leaders present voicing the confidence that thousands of their co-workers back home would unite in the vast war activity fund drive.

Expressions of confidence in the success of the campaign in the State to raise $1,770,000 the week of November 11, were greeted with applause which reflected the knowledge of the campaigners that lines of faith will be eliminated in the unity of spirit and endeavor for the morale and comfort of "our boys" as never before in the history of Kentucky.

Judge Edward W. Hines, Kentucky chairman of the allied war drive who presided at the meeting, announced the men and women of the national and the Kentucky executive committee who as he said would stand "beneath" the campaign. They are as follows:

C. A. Tevebaugh, State campaign director, and the members of the executive committee: William Heyburn, Young Men's Christian Association; Col. P. H. Callahan, National Catholic War Council; Benjamin S. Washer, Jewish Welfare Board; Mrs. Casella Dunkerson, Young Women's Christian Association; Dr. Ben L. Bruner, Salvation Army; Col. Marion E. Taylor, American Library Association; S. Thurston Ballard, War Camp Community Service.

REMEMBER TO SAVE YOUR PEACH SEEDS

Everyone is urged to remember to save his peach seeds for the American Red Cross. Plans for the collection of these seeds in Maysville are going forward and the committee in charge hopes to have the containers ready by the first of the week.

LEWIS COUNTY MUDDLE IS NOW

CLEARED UP

Road Squabble in Lewis County which has kept the County in An-Uproar for Several Years is

Calmed By the Decision of Mason County Jury in the Rand Case.

The decision of the jury in the Mason Circuit Court last Friday finding Ed Rand, prominent young Vanceburg contractor, not guilty under an indictment charging him with conspiracy to fraud, will, in a measure clear up the great road muddle which has kept Lewis county in an uproar for the past five years.

When the State Road proposition was first announced Lewis county was one of the first counties in the state to vote a $150,000 bond issue for the improvement of their roads. Since the voting of the bonds and the beginning of the road construction the county has been torn up considerably by the cry of fraud.

Young Mr. Threlkeld took ill first a week ago last Thursday. He steadily grew worse until his physicians learned he was suffering from appendicitis. He submitted to the knife on last Wednesday and came from under the operation in a very critical condition.

Louis Bell Threlkeld was 17 years of age on April 19th. He was a Sophomore in the Maysville High School and was universally liked by all who knew him and extremely popular among his classmates. He is survived by his devoted parents, one sister, Miss Hilda Threlkeld, of this city and two brothers, Sergeant James Threlkeld, of Camp Hancock, Ga., and Lieut.
Lisle Threlkeld, of Camp Hancock.

Funeral will be held Monday afternoon at two o'clock and burial will be made in the Maysville cemetery.
